Throughout the 1983 Red and Black, we have tried to present you with what we feel are the important aspects of life at Stevens. Although we have included many pictures of the faculty, it is important to remember that it is the student body which is the subject of our yearbook. This book will remind you, in years to come, of the memorable high school experiences you have gained and that can be obtained nowhere else. We hope that our efforts will make it possible for you to recapture these events with renewed enthusiasm each time you open it.

Frederick W. Carr

We, the graduating class of 1983, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Frederick Carr for his twenty years of devotion to Stevens High School. During his career he has served countless students as a teacher, administrator, and good friend. His wisdom and insight have allowed our school to progress with the times and yet still maintain tradition. We feel Mr. Carr embodies the essence of school life. Therefore, it is our pleasure to honor the man who is Stevens. We want him to know that his good deeds have not gone unnoticed and that we appreciate all he has done for us. The class of 1983 joins his many friends in wishing him a healthy, happy, and prosperous retirement!

Dedication

George F. Disnard

As Superintendent, George Disnard brought total dedication to maintaining the highest possible quality of education in Claremont, Cornish, and Unity. His experience as a teacher in Claremont on both elementary and secondary levels, as elementary principal, teacher consultant and assistant superintendent, served him exceptionally well in understanding the needs of both students and teachers. Local districts also enjoyed the benefits of his talent for foreseeing changes in the educational fields. As a result, SAU No. 6 was usually better prepared than most communities to implement new programs required by the State and indeed, often served as a model. In order to thank him for his many services, the Class of 1983 is dedicating this yearbook to him.

1982 Junior Prom

The theme of the 1982 Junior Prom was "Hollywood Nights". It took many hours of preparation by a large group of enthusiastic individuals to organize the anticipated event. The reward for our efforts was an interesting evening filled with much excitement. Highlighting the evening was the crowning of the Prom Queen, Patricia Marro, who was escorted by Steve Wolfe. Her court consisted of Stephanie Aylward escorted by Leo Lawrence, Alexis Spanos escorted by George Caccavaro, Julie Scala escorted by Jonathan Kane and Marcela Alvarez escorted by Chris Kidder. A memorable evening was had by all.

Independent off-season workouts, coupled with the rigor and intensity of Camp Coniston, paid winning dividends for Tom Fowler's senior-led squad. The team ended the season with a 5-4 record, leaving no doubt among supporters or opponents that Stevens is a force to be reckoned with as C.V.L. titles are decided.

In Memory Of Rene Thibodeau

Death Be Not Proud

Death be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for though art not so;
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow
Die not, poor Death; nor yet canst thou kill me.
From Rest and Sleep, which but thy picture be,
Much pleaure; then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee do go—
Rest of their bones and soul's delivery!

Thou'rt slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And Death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die!

—John Donne

Audrey,
What a year! So believe we survived a whole year of Jesse? What a miracle!
Chorus was interesting wasn't it? Music awards come out today! (whoopie shit)
We had fun talking about Bob behind his back didn't we? Just think, one more year to go!
Keep that thought!
See you next year
Enjoy!
